

In response to COVID-19 pandemic, the NJ State Library has partnered with BiblioBoard to launch a free e-book library of selected graphic novels and comics available for children and teens in New Jersey during the summer months. Visit <https://njsl-vlcc.biblioboard.com/> to start reading!

As of right now, there are nearly 4,000 titles available. You don't need a library card to access them, and there are no holds required. The collection uses geolocation to provide access if you're located in New Jersey.

The library includes a collection of simultaneous use e-books from leading children's comics and graphic novel publishers and the San Jose Public Library Graphic Novel Archive from their Graphic Novel Writing Contests.

Once you click on the link, you can access the entire collection by clicking on the Menu button on the top left-hand side of the page. You don't have to create an account or log in to read what's available – just click on Categories or Curation under Explore. To see the entire list of what's available, click on Read under Explore.
